GREAT BARRIER REEF

I raised my head and suddenly I saw an enormous white form coming towards me.

I haven't noticed them at first but there were three of them, I was afraid but after a few seconds I understood that they were only dolphins.

I decided to call Chloe to show her the dolphins ! She answered my call while she was relaxing under a beach umbrella.

She laughed for a few seconds and she saluted the dolphins with her hands. « Hey loser ! Having fun with your only friends, the fish ! », she said.

« What a jerk...She's just jealous ! » I thought before hanging up on her. I stroked the dolphins, they were so cute !

I had a really good day ! I was swimming and playing with the dolphins until very late ! Chloé should have come with me, she doesn't know what she missed !
